Testimonials

Gena is an extraordinary teacher, coach, and person. I was feeling very frustrated with inconsistencies in my golf game when a friend introduced me to Gena. From the first lesson my game improved. Her approach is simple and yet incredibly effective. Initially she made very minor changes and then, over follow-up sessions, continued to build on that foundation. My game has improved, evidenced by my lower scores and the amazement of my golf buddies. I have more power, consistency, and FUN than ever before. I'm actually enjoying the game of golf. In addition to her professional expertise, Gena is a delight to work with. She makes learning fun, she has a great sense of humor and is very generous with her knowledge and time. Can't wait for my next lesson!

With a backswing that was hurting my golf game I searched for a golf instructor I could trust. I found that in Gena Dells with her fresh approach to teaching the swing. She doesn't teach one swing for all students, she takes your swing and improves it with insightful teaching. She has a great eye for what needs to be corrected and makes sure that her students have a clear picture of what they need to work on. Gena is my golf professional because she is passionate about teaching golf, she gets excited to see her students improve and hit great shots. She is well respected because she never gives up on her students and is constantly striving to make them all better golfers. I highly recommend her to improve your golf swing.

If you're seriously interested in improving your game, you need to seek the help of a PGA Professional. If you're like me and you've been playing for a while, you don't want someone to remake your swing, you want someone to take what you have and show you how to improve it. Gena offers simple, non-technical advice based on solid fundamentals. After a personal evaluation, Gena gives you one or two simple swing thoughts designed to improve your play, lower your handicap and increase your enjoyment of the game. So if you're looking for the best in a PGA Professional, Gena Dells gets my highest recommendation.
